The Dolphin Gallery is pleased to present a solo exhibition by David Ford. Though primarily known as a painter, Ford's work covers a range of disciplines and cultures. His work exemplifies an approach of culling and combining images and information from a variety of sources, always keenly aware of the context from which they are derived and the meaning they carry. With no formal training, he paints in reaction to outside forces - social, political, philosophical. His work confronts and challenges the viewers who must ask and answer their own questions.

David Ford received a Charlotte Street Fund grant in 2001 and was recipient of The Tanne Foundation Award in 2004. Ford has exhibited his art and lectured extensively within the United States and internationally.

Gallery hours: Tuesday-Friday 9-5 | Saturday 12-5
