Dolphin Gallery is pleased to present the debut solo exhibition of photographer Michael Sinclair. Drawn from Sinclair's discerning images of every day life, this body of work constitutes a twenty-six year exploration into the psyche of main stream America, exploring the realms of leisure, well-being and familiarity. Through his camera's lens Sinclair documents a way of life where inhabitants, gather at rural fair grounds, city parks and in their homes, in the full pursuit of amusement.

Michael Sinclair's work is included in numerous private and public collections including the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, The Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art, Kansas City, MO. and Johnson County Community College Gallery of Art, Overland Park, KS. Sinclair is a 1999 recipient of the Charlotte Street Fund Award, recognizing outstanding visual artists in the region..
